Baseball

The men's baseball spires played six games last week, winning three.

On Tuesday, we hosted Kansas Wesleyan, winning one game, 2-1, in extra innings and losing the other game, 10-7.

On Thursday, the doubleheader at Kansas Wesleyan in Salina was rained-out.

On Saturday, we hosted Sterling College, winning one game, 7-0, and losing the other, 6-4.

On Sunday, we made up the April 12th rain-out by hosting Bethany College winning one game, 11-7, and losing the other, 3-1

Next on the schedule is a 1 p.m. doubleheader Tuesday here on campus against Park University. On Wednesday, we host William Jewell in a 1 p.m. doubleheader. On Saturday, we head for Hillsboro, Kan., for a 1 p.m. doubleheader at Tabor College.

The baseball Spires overall record is 19-17, and 11-7 in the KCAC

Softball

The women's softball team played two games and won two games they didn't play. Let us explain...

Tabor College forfeited their Saturday doubleheader chalking up two wins for our team.

On Wednesday, we hosted Sterling College, losing the first game 8-3. The second game went into extra innings and finally was stopped because of darkness with the score tied 7-7.

The Thursday doubleheader against Baker University in Baldwin City, Kan., was rained out.

On Monday, we travel to McPherson to make up the April 12 rain-out with a 5 p.m. doubleheader. Tuesday, we travel to Ottawa for a 1 p.m. doubleheader. On Friday, we host Friends University for a 1 p.m. doubleheader to make-up the April 10 rain-out. And on Saturday, we host KCKCC for a noon doubleheader.

The women's softball team overall record is 5-18-1.
